PREFACE.

SINCE the last Edition of this work was published, the Advertisements and Information to which the names relate have been nearly doubled, and a new Edition being called for, the Compiler has endeavoured, at great expense, to make it the most perfect Index of its kind. It contains upwards of 50,000 names of persons advertised for during the last 150 years in the London Gazette, Times, and numerous other London and Country newspapers, inquiring for Heirs at Law, Next of Kin, Legatees, and others to come forward and prove their claims to property of the aggregate value of MANY MILLIONS STERLING.

It is only necessary to mention one or two facts to shew the usefulness of an Index such as this. By a return recently presented to the House of Commons, the amount of the Suitors' Stock and Cash standing in the Court of Chancery is £60,425,400 5s. 6d. Of this sum a large portion awaits claimants. There is also an enormous sum standing unclaimed at the Bank of England in the shape of Unclaimed Dividends. On the National Debt alone the amount was, at the commencement of 1872, nearly £1,000,000. Very large sums are also due to the representatives of persons who have died abroad intestate, and the amount of Army and Navy Prize Money due to the Representatives of deceased Soldiers and Sailors is in round numbers £1,500,000. A very large proportion of these vast sums can readily be recovered on properly authenticated proofs of relationship being produced. A copy of a Next of Kin advertisement is often sufficient to put inquirers in possession of a direct clue to very large sums of money.

An endeavour has been made in this Edition to avoid repetitions, the same person often being advertised for many times in different newspapers. Wherever two entries of the same name occur, a short description has been inserted for easier identification. When several members of a family are wanted, one entry only has been made; thus, Abbott Family, 71,070, although Ann, George, Mary, Philip, Thomas, and William Abbott may be wanted. This course has considerably condensed the Index.

The compiler believes that this Index will be found of the greatest assistance by Solicitors and others in prosecuting inquiries respecting unclaimed money. Even in cases where, after a copy of an Advertisement is obtained, it is found that the property referred to has been already recovered, the information is still valuable, as anxiety is set at rest, and a great deal of time and money saved that would otherwise be spent in useless searches.

NOTE.—The Compiler can only be seen by appointment. Parliament Street

NOTICE TO ENQUIRERS.

NUMBERS of Advertisements appear daily in the Newspapers calling on Heirs-at-Law, Next-of-Kin, Legatees, Missing Friends and others to come forward and claim property of all kinds and amounts in value. These notifications are often unseen at the time of publication by the parties really interested, who perhaps only hear, on their return from abroad many years afterwards, that they have been advertised for. They are then naturally anxious to obtain a copy of the advertisement and ascertain if there is any unclaimed money or property that they are entitled to. Hence the value of this Index. It enables the public to obtain this very valuable information for a small fee.

In addition to the names contained in this Index, the compiler has lists of persons who have died intestate in India, America, Australia, and elsewhere, and is constantly adding thereto. If, therefore, an inquirer does not find the name wanted in this list, the compiler suggests that particulars be sent to him of the circumstances under which information is sought (together with the usual inquiry fee, 30 stamps), and careful search will then be made. If the name wanted is not found, advice will be given as to the best mode of procedure.

SEARCHES made at the CHANCERY OFFICES, DOCTORS' COMMONS, INDIA OFFICE, ADMIRALTY and elsewhere, on moderate terms.

Information can also be obtained respecting Unclaimed Dividends of the Bank of England, South Sea Stock, Army and Navy Prize Money, Bankruptcy Dividends, &c.

[OPINIONS OF PRESS, SEE NEXT PAGE.]

Well and clearly arranged.....and ought to prove valuable to all interested in unclaimed sums of money or property.—Standard, 1 November, 1872.

An immense number of names are included in this list, in the compilation of which a great amount of time and labour must have been expended.—News of the World, 2 November, 1872.

There are thousands of persons in the United Kingdom to whom this book would be an absolute fortune.....Weekly Times, 10 November, 1872.

This new edition of Mr. Chambers's useful publication will be welcome, not merely to those who, like Mr. Micawber, are 'waiting for something to turn up,' but to all who have reason to believe that some snug legacy is waiting for them and only requires to be claimed. And how many there are who have expectations of this kind, or fancy they have!.....Some idea of the completeness of the work may be gathered from the fact that "it contains upwards of 50,000 names of persons advertised for during the last 150 years in the London Gazette, Times, and numerous other London and country newspapers, inquiring for heirs-at-law, next of kin, legatees, and others, to come forward and prove their claims to property of the aggregate value of many millions sterling." In order to show the usefulness of his Index, the compiler gives us a few facts.....(See Preface). It must be hard, after finding with a thrill of satisfaction that you are wanted, to discover on inquiry that the will or legacy belongs to another person of the same name or has already been claimed; but even for this class Mr. Chambers has consolation, remarking that "anxiety is set at rest, and a great deal of time and money saved that would otherwise be spent in useless searches."—Leeds Mercury, 31 October, 1872.

The third edition of a very useful book has just been published..... The compiler makes it his business to answer all communications bearing upon the contents of his book..... Its value to Solicitors and others prosecuting inquiries as to unclaimed property cannot be over estimated.—Birmingham Daily Gazette, 7 November, 1872.

We imagine the Index will be of great assistance to Solicitors and others wanting a clue to unclaimed money. The preface states some facts to prove its value. The following is all we need by way of example, (see Times, 8 October, 1872.)—

"FIVE POUNDS REWARD.—To Solicitors and others.—Wanted, an advertisement, which appeared in the Times paper about the year 1840, for Walter William Smith, a kin to the Ashton family.—W. S....."

On referring to the Index we notice two Walter Smiths, Nos. 3597, and 14,838, also Ashton family, 69,698, most probably one of these is the advertisement required. The price is 10s. 6d. post free, but, by a convenient arrangement, any person requiring only a single letter can be supplied with it for 1s.—Cox's Legal Circular, 2 November, 1872.

Claimants wanted for Millions of Money.—Chambers's Index to Heirs-at-Law, &c., presents some startling facts as to the amount of unclaimed money in this country.....A week never passes without one or more applications being made to us respecting missing advertisements, which it is of course impossible for us to answer. If our correspondents will turn to this handy volume they will find the names alphabetically arranged; and can procure the information they seek for a small fee. Lloyd's, 2 November, 1872.

This is a very useful work, and will be found especially serviceable to Solicitors and others who are prosecuting inquiries respecting unclaimed money.—Huddersfield Daily Chronicle, 4 November, 1872.

In this volume a long list is given of the names of those persons who have been advertised for in connection with unclaimed property during the last 150 years. The particulars, so far as they are here furnished, are arranged in alphabetical order for ready reference.—City Press, October 26, 1872.

Among the members of many families a vague kind of tradition is preserved to the effect that they are entitled to an amount of property which it would be folly to think of ever possessing. An old connection of the family died some indefinite time ago, leaving them the rightful heirs to his or her property, but by some complicated machinations on the part of the lawyers, neither capable of being understood or overcome, it never came into their possession. In many cases, of course, these rights are only fanciful, but it is nevertheless a somewhat startling fact.....(See Preface.) It is a compendious volume, and enables any person to obtain for a very small fee a copy of the 'Next of Kin' advertisement, which is stated to be often sufficient to put enquirers in possession of a direct clue to very large sums of money.—Brighton Daily News, 4 November, 1872.

The Index must be very valuable to all interested in unclaimed money, of which, as the preface shews, there are many millions sterling awaiting claimants.—Chamber of Agriculture Journal, October 28, 1872.
